NEW REDUCED OFFICE HOURS FOR SUMMER: MON-FRI 8:00 AM - 12 NOON

June 14 is FLAG DAY and flags will be flown high everywhere, including Brandywine. Bear in mind that a flag flown at night has to have illumination for it.

FROM THE NEST:

Update notice for Hurricane Season: A good source of information for unit owners is checking AAA.com or you can either visit your local AAA office or call 1-800-222-1134. Another source is FloodSmart.gov/OneMile. Do whatever you are comfortable with and pick up any pertinent brochures at the local super markets for further assistance.

If anyone feels they need sand by a rear doorway during heavy rain conditions, they can get bags at the Fire House. Why not be a step ahead and keep a few bags in your garage?

Save time and effort, as we near the summer season, and put some decorations away till Autumn. It will save them from sun damage too. Audrey Murphy 489-2806 / cell-757-871-9667

POOL RECONSTRUCTION: Pools and Spa will remain CLOSED until Construction is completed.

BRANDYWINE WEBSITE: I am not able to send "Blind" emails to unit owners on the website address list. Agendas, minutes and other information will continue to be put on the website, but emails can not be sent. Unit owners should check the web's site www.mybrandywine.org frequently for updates, especially the day before meetings to read/print agendas. I will resume sending emails if/when I can get the "blocking" issue cleared up with Gmail. Roger Hervey, Webmaster
