PUZZLE ROOM

As most of you know and perhaps some do not, there is a lovely room next to the "old" kitchen across from the pool and in the closet, there are dozens of jigsaw puzzles. Many of these were in disarray with damaged boxes and missing pieces. Now they have been cleaned through, counted and those with missing pieces eliminated. This took many hours of work and we have two resident volunteers to thank for this. Carol Fadden and Phyliss Cipolloni are the two women we give a big THANK YOU to. Anyone can take puzzles home and use them. We only ask that they be returned where and how you found them. Dorothy Aneiro

A NOTE FROM YOUR BOARD

As your BOD president, I feel a tremendous sense of responsibility to our residents. We have spent thousands of dollars on renovations, and we need to work together to take care of our neighborhood. Too many green cards have been issued to outsiders in the last six months, and it appears to me that we need to review our entrance procedures. We have no record of individuals who can enter our community at any given time. It is time for us to look at ways to preserve our community and better protect our residents. A committee has been formed to review our procedures for entrance into Brandywine. The committee members are Ro Sax, Bob O'Keeffe, Jack and Jackie Shiels, Russ Pier and Gary Steinhoff. I would like to thank each of them for their input. I am hoping to share these procedures with our Unit Owners before the end of March.
