SINGLES CLUB

Thursday, January 4th, 6pm in Library

With the New Year, I always made a New Year's resolution. It may have been to lose weight, exercise more, or eat healthier. Sometimes it worked for a month but by April the thought of my resolution was in my rearview mirror. This year is no exception "Try try again" but I resolve to be kinder to others in words and deeds. I think I have gotten away from the "treat your neighbor as you would want to be treated" message. So going forward I will not get upset with the checker at the store or customer service people who are just doing their jobs. But treat them as I would want to be treated. I'll keep you posted. For December the Singles club was going to the Cypress Lakes High School Christmas concert but due to COVID, we decided to not risk the exposure. However, we will be going to the Ghost Walk at Koreashen Park on Feb 2. We went last year, and it was so good we all wanted to go again. Our next meeting, Thursday, Jan. 4 at 6pm, in the library. We will be planning our outings for 2024, so please bring your ideas to share and your calendars as we will be looking ahead. The Singles Club is open to all singles and those living alone and caregivers whose partner is unable to get out. So, come join us. Sue Gable
